

FOROPA Expert Database on Biomass and Biomass Supply Chains

Name and Surname	Prof. Dragoslava Stojiljkovic, Ph.D.Mech.Eng.
Field of expertise	Energy, biomass, combustion, biofuel
Recent employment	University of Belgrade – Faculty of Mechanical Engineering
Address	Kraljice Marije 16, 11000 Belgrade
Phone	+38162295859, +381113370299
e-mail	dstoiljkovic (at) mas.bg.ac.rs
Internet
Languages	English / Serbian Other: French
Main references	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ FP7 project: S2BIOM - Delivery of sustainable supply of non-food biomass to support a “resource-efficient” Bioeconomy in Europe, participant, 2013- ▪ Sustainable Biomass and Biofuels in Serbia (G2G08/SB/6/3) - preparation of Biomass Action Plan for Serbia, consultant for NL Agency, 2009-2010. ▪ Development of Renewable Energy Framework in Serbia (G2G10/SB/9/2) - development of National Renewable Energy Action Plan for Serbia. senior consultant for NL Agency, 2011-2013, ▪ Guides for Investors in Renewable Energy, consultant for GIZ for the USAID/GTZ project, 2010. ▪ Preparation of GEF CEO Endorsement Request and the UNDP Project Document - Reducing Barriers to Accelerate the Development of Biomass Markets in Serbia, consultant for E4tech, 2012-2013. ▪ Study Biomass Consumption for Energy Purposes in the Energy Community, consultant for CRES, 2011-2012. ▪ Study Biomass survey in Serbia, USAID - Hellenic AID energy cooperation SYNENERGY, consultant for CRES, 2010. ▪ Investigation of Combustion Process in Stove and Boiler Fired on Biomass, R&D project, team leader, 2002-2006. ▪ Participation in different events and activities organized by CEI: Expert Group Meeting on Next Generation Bio-fuels and Bio-refineries Case Studies for selected East European Countries (2009) and 2nd SEDRI (Sustainable Energy Development Regional Initiative) Task Force meeting and CEI Expert Meeting on Next Generation of Biofuels (2011). 	